

REMEMBRANCE

at

BATH POETRY CAFE
Wednesday 18th November 2009
at 7 pm

Supported by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

All tickets £4
Bring your own refreshments/share with

REMEMBRANCE

at

BATH POETRY CAFE
Wednesday 18th November 2009
at 7 pm

CAFE POETS

John Terry, Martin Malone, Linda Saunders
Nikki Bennett, Peter Wyton, Rosalie Challis

Wayne Hill, Bill Beck, Alana Farrell

June Hall, Yu Yan Chen, Gary Rowland

Kim Hastings, Frances-Anne King

Caroline Heaton, Dikra Ridha

Sheila Simmons, Sue Boyle

Peter Charters & Tracy Wall

invite you to a very special programme of readings in the Duncan Room

with

Music By Gorecki

Supported by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

All tickets £4

Bring your own refreshments/share with

The Poems

Wilfred Owen: Futility

John Terry: Soldier with Rifle

Martin Malone: So

Linda Saunders: Killing Time

For those who wished they could forget

Nikki Bennett: The Forgotten Fallen

Peter Wyton: The Lookout

The testimony of Kenneth Cummins R.N.

Rosalie Challis: War Travels

Wayne Hill: Leave Them

Bill Beck: We Hate War, Don't We?

Alana Farrell: The Peace You Gave

For the young who fought for Britain when the world was at war.

INTERVAL

June Hall: Ground Zero, October 31st 2005

Yu Yan Chen: Elegy for Zang Zhe

Gary Rowland: A House Named Remember

Kim Hastings: Cry like Spring Rain

Frances-Anne King: Silences

In memory of my father

Caroline Heaton: Witness

My father was one of the liberating army who reached Belsen in 1945

Dikra Ridha: The Enemy Came from Above

Sheila Simmons: Fruit Picking

Sue Boyle: The War Wife's Almanac

Wilfred Wilson Gibson: A Lament

One Minute Silence

CAFE ENDS